Offered to the market with No Onward Chain, this spacious end-terrace property represents a fantastic opportunity for investors or Buy To Let purchasers looking to add value through modernisation.

This home is brimming with potential and offers an excellent canvas for those with vision. Located in a well-established area close to local amenities, schools, shops, and the popular Ropner Park, this property also benefits from strong transport links, making it an attractive prospect future buyers.

Set behind a modest front garden, the property welcomes you via a central entrance hallway with stairs leading to the first floor. The ground floor accommodation includes living room, enjoying dual aspect bay windows to the front and side, allowing natural light to pour in. The separate dining room, also bay-fronted, leads through to a fitted kitchen and gives internal access to the adjoining garage – perfect for secure parking, additional storage or, subject to relevant permissions, conversion to expand the living space.

Upstairs, the landing gives access to three well-proportioned bedrooms, all capable of accommodating double beds, along with a family bathroom.

Requiring a degree of upgrading and cosmetic attention, this property offers a wealth of potential to create a lovely family home or lucrative rental investment in a highly convenient location.
