Description

For sale via secure sale online bidding: terms and conditions apply.

We are delighted to bring to the market this ground floor premises (approx 538 sq.ft.), ideally situated on Front Street in the charming coastal village of Newbiggin-by-the-Sea.

The location offers excellent convenience, with a wide range of local amenities close at hand and well-regarded schools within easy reach—making it an ideal setting for family life. Ashington town centre is just a short drive away, while the nearby Queen Elizabeth II Country Park provides a tranquil setting for scenic walks and relaxation.

The accommodation briefly comprises: a spacious front shop featuring a large display window and direct street access, a rear retail area, and convenient access to the rear.

A unique feature of this property is its versatility—originally one residential dwelling, it now offers the potential to incorporate a residential maisonette, accessed via the entrance hall (available under a separate title).
