Description

For Sale Via Online Auction, Terms & Conditions Apply.

A rare opportunity to acquire an attractive equestrian property set within approximately 2 acres of Green Belt countryside, ideally located close to Thurgoland village.

The property benefits from five horse stables, well-maintained grazing land, and a useful storage shed, making it well suited to private equestrian use. Secure electric gated access provides privacy and convenience, while a water supply and generator offer practical utility provision.

The land adjoins existing horse fields and enjoys an open rural setting with additional neighbouring pastureland. Excellent countryside riding and walking routes are available directly from the property, with a neighbouring village accessible on foot. Local amenities, including the well-regarded Green Dragon and Horse & Jockey public houses, are within easy reach. Prospective purchasers should note that an oil pipeline easement runs beneath part of the land. This is a unique opportunity to enjoy equestrian facilities in a sought-after village-edge location surrounded by beautiful countryside.
